

Clinician giving adherence counseling talk to clients prepared for ART initiation

ART ACTIVITY PICTORIAL

A nurse reviewing a patient, who had TB and was also on ART during a home visit at Lwaggurwe,

HIV Medic & the ART Aid monitoring patients' adherence through file review

The ART Team during a monthly departmental meeting. Such meetings are organized to allow quality service

A Client demonstrating his understanding of how to take his Medicine given after initiation on ARVs.

Pill count being done for the patients' refills to allow proper monitoring of adherence and drug requisitions

Nurse counselors doing data entry in the Pre and ART registers for proper patients' follow up and data management

A Nurse giving treatment education and ART adherence counseling to client who had come for refills

Expert clients and HIV Medics helping to dispense & pill count drugs at Mbirizi center.